Sak 63/13

JUS273-2-C Law and Justice. Endret emnebeskrivelse

Etter å ha snakket med Knut Martin om obligatoriske oppgaver i fagene JUS273-2-A, Legal Philosophy, og JUS273-2-C*, Law and Justice,* ble vi enige om at jeg skulle formulere et forslag om å ta bort kravet om obligatorisk oppgave i kursbeskrivelsene for det kommende semesteret. Ettersom jeg er litt ny på området lurer jeg på om det kan gjøres på følgende måte? Si i fra om det er noe annet jeg skal gjøre.

Vennlig hilsen
Kjersti L

Nåværende tekst i kursbeskrivelsen for JUS273-2-C: Law and Justice	Ny tekst i kursbeskrivelsen for JUS273-2-A: *Law and Justice
Compulsory Requirements A paper must be approved before exam. Assessment methods Exams are held in teaching semesters only. A mandatory paper must be submitted and approved in the teaching semester before taking the final exam. For students who attended classes in the teaching semester, but who due to illness, pregnancy or other special circumstances were unable to submit the mandatory paper and sit the exam, the faculty may on application accept submission of mandatory paper and hold an exam the following semester. Students who completed the exam in the teaching semester, but did not achieve a pass grade, or who due to illness, pregnancy or other special circumstances were unable to sit the exam, are entitled to (re-)sit the exam the following semester. Four hours school exam. A - E for passed, F for failed. Exam language: • Question paper: English • Answer paper: English	Compulsory Requirements None Assessment methods Exams are held in teaching semesters only. Students who completed the exam in the teaching semester, but did not achieve a pass grade, or who due to illness, pregnancy or other special circumstances were unable to sit the exam, are entitled to (re-)sit the exam the following semester. Four hours school exam. A - E for passed, F for failed. Exam language: • Question paper: English • Answer paper: English