

THE CITY CAMPUS

Do you enjoy the idea of a university located in the heart of the city?

UiB's faculty buildings, libraries and study halls are mainly located on or close to Nygårdshøyden right in the centre of Bergen within a short distance to cafés, sports halls, parks, shops and public transportation hubs. Just outside the city centre you will find the Faculty of Medicine of Dentistry campus on Årstadvollen, in close proximity to Haukeland University Hospital and Haraldsplass Deacon Hospital.

There are more than 25.000 students in Bergen, around 10% of the city's total population number. The students have great impact on the city which is noticeable through the rich cultural life the city has to offer. Bergen is also surrounded by nature. The mountains and the sea are just a stone's throw away. The university is interconnected as an essential part of the city, both geographically, historically and culturally.
