

Research Day

Faculty of Medicine

18 June
Eitri

Knowledge valorisation at the intersection of climate, environment, and health

8.45 - Morning coffee and scones

9.00 - Welcome remarks - Per Bakke, Dean, Faculty of Medicine

9.05 - Introduction: What is knowledge valorisation? - Programme committee: Robin Sinsamala, Adrianna Jebrzycka, Muntequa Ishtiaq Siraj, Natalia Fiasco Arango

9.25 - Keynote lecture: Reflections on knowledge valorisation and the third mission of universities - Randi Taxt, VIS

10.15 - Coffee Break

10.30 - Short lectures: Best practice examples of knowledge valorisation at the Faculty of Medicine

- Brain cancer – biological mechanisms and experimental therapies
 - Per Øyvind Enger, IBM
- Beyond the transcript: Ethnography and policy making
 - Andrea Melberg, IGS
- Stem cells in bone regeneration, the future is now!
 - Cecilie Gjerde, IKO

11.35 - Lunch and poster session

12.25 - Keynote lecture: Understanding the complex link between climate change, health and wellbeing - Shilpa Rao-Skirbekk, Norwegian Institute of Public Health

13.10 - Coffee break and poster vote

13.25 - Short talk: Microplastics and reproductive health - Damaris Benny Daniel, K2

13.50 - Panel discussion topic: From Research to Real World: Maximizing the Impact of Climate, Environment, and Health Knowledge - Marit Voltersvik, chief infection control officer Bergen municipality; Shilpa Rao-Skirbekk, NIPH; Ane Johannessen, IGS; Stina Oseland, director of climate division Bergen municipality

14.35 - Quiz, Award ceremony, final remarks

15.00 - End of the event

